

How do you currently define Student-Led Conferences?

What role does a student play during your conference with parents?

What is your process for collecting student work to show at conferences?

What kinds of comments do you make on student work that you plan to show at conferences?

What kinds of comments do you ask students to make on their work that you plan to show at conferences?

Please share your successes. What strategies have you used that made conferences more impactful?